

TRIBUTE TO WAR CHIEF JOSEPH MEDICINE CROW

• Mr. DAINES. Mr. President, I would like to wish happy birthday to the last Crow war chief, Joseph Medicine Crow, who is celebrating his 102nd birthday today. He has served proudly as the Crow Tribe's historian and storyteller, is a decorated World War II veteran, and was the first in his tribe to attain a master's degree.

Medicine Crow has lived a life filled with numerous accomplishments. He is a recipient of the Presidential Medal of Freedom. The White House identified him as both "a warrior and living legend" when he received the Medal of Freedom in 2009. In 2006, his personal memoir, "Counting Coup," was published by National Geographic. He is considered one of the most celebrated Native American soldiers due to his selfless service in World War II.

With his great-grandmother, grandmother, mother, and uncle all living past 100 years of age, Medicine Crow credits his long life to his strong family roots. Medicine Crow's secret advice to living such a long and full life? He advises going to sleep early, sleeping 8 hours, eating breakfast, keeping busy at work, and eating healthy and generously. He also touched on the positive influences of his wife, who urged him to maintain good habits. His positive, endearing spirit and sense of humor truly keeps him young.

Medicine Crow's spirit, humility, kind disposition, and many incredible life achievements are a model for all Montanans. Happy Birthday, Chief Medicine Crow. I look forward to celebrating many more.●

TRIBUTE TO RUSTY STAFNE

• Mr. DAINES. Mr. President, I wish to recognize the loyal service of A.T. "Rusty" Stafne, chairman of the Fort Peck Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes. Stafne ended his term yesterday and will not be running for reelection as chairman. I am proud to honor and to congratulate him on his service and successes.

As chairman, Stafne has worked diligently for the Assiniboine and Sioux people on the Fort Peck Reservation and has held firm in his priorities. He has worked to honor veterans, specifically those who served in World War II, and has worked tirelessly to protect wildlife in Montana and on the Fort Peck Reservation.

We thank Chairman Stafne for his involvement in the Senate Indian Affairs Committee. He has been a tireless advocate for rural water projects and other challenges facing the tribes. He has traveled to Washington, DC, to testify in front of Congress and has broadened the eyes of many—giving new and better insight into the life of tribal men and women, so that we can work together to better serve and protect our tribal nations.

I am thankful for Chairman Stafne's work on behalf of the tribe. His loyalty, priorities, and hard work set an amazing example to the rest of Montana and our great Nation as a whole.●
